

Hantz Group, Inc. Cookie Policy

When you visit our website, we and our service providers store cookies on your browser to collect information. The information collected might relate to you, your preferences or your device, and is mostly used to make the site work as you expect it to and to provide a more personalized web experience. See the different category headings below to find out more about the cookies our site deploys.

Strictly Necessary and Functional Cookies

Strictly necessary cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences or logging in. We also use these cookies to keep our website safe and secure. These cookies do not store information that directly identifies you. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the website will not function properly. Functional cookies enable the website to provide enhanced functionality and personalization, and improve the online experience. They may be set by us or by service providers whose services we have added to our pages.

Preference Cookies

Preference cookies enable our website to provide enhanced functionality and personalization by allowing us to remember choices you make, such as remembering your device or the identity of a user between sessions.

Performance and Analytical Cookies

Performance cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so we can measure and improve the performance of our site. We may engage third-party analytics providers to track and analyze your usage of our website through the use of these cookies. They help us to know which pages are the most and least popular and see how visitors move around the site. These cookies generally collect aggregated information tied to a user's web session.
